Second Collection Today there for the sick and retired clergy fund.

Remembrance Sunday Today we celebrate Remembrance Sunday, remembering those who have lost their life in warfare. The 10am Mass at Our Lady's will be preceded with the customary two minutes of silence.

November. The month of the Holy Souls. At every Mass we will offer prayers for the Holy Souls, especially for those whose names are in the purple box on the Sanctuary. If you wish to place your names in that box please do so. Any offerings will be put towards Masses offered for the Holy Souls.

Wedding Bells. Every blessing to Hayley McGovern and Adam Black who were married in Our Lady's Church yesterday (Saturday).

Baptism. Welcome to Luna who was baptised today. Also, Luke Thomas Howard, grandson of Deacon Shaun, former deacon in St John Ogilvie who came back from Yorkshire to baptise his little grandson.

First Holy Communion Enrolment. Congratulations to the many children who enrolled yesterday. They will receive the Sacrament of First Confession in the New Year and the First Holy Communion in May 2023.

Teas and Coffees After Mass

It is wonderful that refreshments are back at St John Ogilvie's every Sunday after the 5:00 pm Mass; it is good to see how many stay behind. Please could we have two more volunteers to help once a month with serving the teas? Thanks

You may not see much of Fr Michael over the next couple of weeks, perhaps a fleeting glance, as he has a lot of official diocesan business to attend to which will take him outside of the parish.

May They Rest in Peace Kevin Gormley, whose funeral is at St Brendan's Church on Friday.
Fr Ken Payne, whose funeral is at St Aidan's Church, Little Chalfont on Thursday, 24th November at 11:30 am.

It would be appreciated if all you bakers could, once again, donate some of your wonderful cakes and biscuits.

During this event a Lucky Dip Board will be on display with many crafts and Christmas gifts.

Saturday/Sunday, 4/5th December - Giving Tree/Baby Basics Tree

10/11th December - Giving Tree/Baby Basics Tree

Corby people have always been so generous in donating to charity and due to the wonderful success of the above two in the past, we are again asking for your generosity in donating to these worthwhile charities. Please choose a label from the trees and any donations will be greatly appreciated.

Finance Committee. Our thanks to Jim Streetly who has stood down from the Finance Committee at Our Lady's after twenty years of sterling service. Our thanks to Liz Robison who has taken over the reins and to Eamonn Norton for joining the committee. Other members include Maggie Cleary and Fr Michael. The committee met last week to plan a budget for the next year. Soaring energy costs are a cause of real concern. It takes a lot of gas to heat the vast space of Our Lady's church; we have been told that each of the big church heaters equates to the heating of one residential house. We have a duty to be responsible with the money parishioners give so generously week by week

At St John Ogilvie's, Damian and Doreen Tracy are the backbone of the Finance Committee, our thanks go out to them.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

At the 10:00 am Mass at Our Lady's each Sunday we invite the little ones forward to head off for their own liturgy in the parish meeting room. This is open to those school children in Reception, year one and year two. From now on we ask that year three children remain in church, as this is an important year for you as you prepare for First Holy Communion. For this week only, we will gather the children before Mass starts, so that they can be on the way by the time we begin to silence for Remembrance Day.

May God Bless Us All.
