September: The Month of The Seven Sorrows of Mary
Pope Francis' Prayer intention for September:

For people living on the margins

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

The Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

(see below) is now a staple of liturgies in many parishes across the world either as part of the Holy Rosary and/or often recited after the conclusion of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This prayer, invoking the assistance of the Archangel Michael, has been offered by the faithful since AD 1886 (composed as it was by Pope St Leo XIII), but its popularity declined following the Second Vatican Council (October 1962 to December 1965). However, renewed interest in the prayer developed in the autumn of AD 2018 in the wake of concerns about unity within the Catholic Church and new revelations of sexual abuse of minors and adolescents by clergy and others. In October of that year, Pope Francis invoked the prayer and suggested it be recited by all the faithful. The Holy Father has not been shy in citing the devil as a cause of evil and disunity: "[The church must be] saved from the attacks of the malign one, the great accuser and at the same time be made ever more aware of its guilt, its mistakes, and abuses committed in the present and the past" (29th September AD 2018). The prayer was also endorsed by Pope St John Paul II in a 1994 Angelus address as he reflected on threats toward the unborn.

Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in this day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust down into hell satan, and all evil spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen

Parish Solemnity 2023

The celebration of our Parish Solemnity of Our Lady of Walsingham on Sunday, 24th September (and anticipated at the Vigil Mass) will provide us with the perfect opportunity to honour our Blessed Lady, in this her Dowry of England, and to share in worship and friendship with our three Priests: Fr Christopher (Parish Priest), Fr Prasad (Assistant Priest) and Fr Wayne (Priest in Residence). As our Parish of Our Lady Walsingham rejoices on that day so too naturally will the community at St John Ogilvie Church as we delight in being one Christian family. We also hope our brothers and sisters in Christ in the parishes of St Brendan and St Patrick will join us in prayer to Our Blessed Mother as we ask of her intercession for the town of Corby and all its surrounding villages. We shall spiritually prepare for our Patronal Solemnity with nine days of prayer as we publicly offer together the Novena of Our Lady of Walsingham from 15th September and invoke the prayers of St John Ogilvie (more details to follow shortly so keep an eye on the newsletter).

Our Lady of Walsingham: Pray for us.

St John Ogilvie: Pray for us.

UPCOMING EVENTS!

WORLD DAY FOR MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

Webinar: 6:00pm - 7:30pm

Wednesday, 20th September 2023

This year, Caritas Social Action Network together with the Catholic Bishop's Conference of England and Wales are hosting a webinar to mark World Day for Migrants and Refugees and reflect upon the Pope's message. We can hear from Bishop Paul McAleenan, the Lead Bishop for Migrants & Refugees at the Catholic Bishop's Conference of England and Wales, and Christine Allen, Director of CAFOD. We will also be joined by a Vatican representative from the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development who will present the Pope's message. You are welcome to join them to discuss the right to migrate and how we can help homelands to flourish, as well as reflecting on Love the Stranger and discuss what action we can take in our communities. MASS FOR MARRIED COUPLES

The annual Mass for Married Couples will take place on Saturday, 30th September at midday in our Cathedral Church in Northampton. Bishop David will preside at Holy Mass and offer his pastoral blessing to those couples celebrating significant milestones in their marriage: i.e., 1, 10, 20, 25, 30, 40, 50 years, etc. If you or someone you know is celebrating such a milestone, please contact Sam: 07824386804 or email mfl@northamptondiocese.org. All are very welcome to participate in this special Mass for our Diocese and there will be light refreshments afterwards in the St Thomas Centre.

*With every blessing this Ordinary Time,
Fr Christopher, Fr Prasad & Fr Wayne*
